Leadership, Supervision & Management

Are You Ethical?: (Tuesday, February 19, 2008 @ 7 p.m., SAC 306) This workshop examines individual approaches to managing diversity, defining important concepts and terms, learning about the impact of stereotyping and bias in the workplace as well as building skills to more effectively work with colleagues and students. Presented by: Antonio Ferrantino

Professional Power: (Wednesday, February 20, 2008 @ 12:45 p.m., SAC 302) This workshop will discuss the manner of conducting and executing tasks with the highest commitment to effective and efficient execution, personal integrity, and respect for all parties involved. Presented by: Allyson Stein & David Hairston

Supervisor Skill Jam!: (Thursday, February 21, 2008 @ 8 p.m., SAC 302) Built on practical models of what effective managers think, say and do, the work environment they want to create and the relationships they need to build and sustain. Presented by: Sarah Young

Motivation Madness: (Tuesday, February 26, 2008 @ 7 p.m., SAC 302) This workshop is based on the ideas in the National Bestseller (FISH): Choose to make today a great day; Play, be serious about your work but make it fun; Be there, take the time to be present in your interactions with others; Make another's day by offering a helping hand or a word of encouragement. Presented by: Shannon Kelly

Rock The Resolution: (Wednesday, February 27, 2008 @ 12:45 p.m., SAC 306) Conflict occurs but, progress depends on the resolution of conflict. This workshop will provide methods and activities that may help resolve difficulties with specific individuals in your group. Presented by: Franny Bavaro

Who's Got Skills?: (Thursday, February 28, 2008 @ 8 p.m., SAC 302) Can you convey your thoughts and feelings clearly and effectively so that they are understood by others? Are you a "good listener"? What characteristics does a good listener possess? This session will increase your awareness of communication behaviors in the work place. Presented by: Pam Palleschi

The Magic Manager: (Tuesday, March 4, 2008 @ 7 p.m., SAC 302) This session covers areas such as the manager's role in: coaching, delegating, leading, motivating and planning. These are key areas that enable managers to enhance their own performance while providing their employees with opportunities to excel. Presented by: Courtney Sanfelippo

Sensei Of Situation: (Wednesday, March 5, 2008 @ 12:45 p.m., SAC 302) Leaders often need to make adjustments in leadership techniques based on the needs of the group or organization and depending on the group's aptitude and willingness to perform. This session will provide ideas for working with groups in various situations. Presented by: Dr. Susan DiMonda

Know Your Rights?: (Thursday, March 6, 2008 @ 3p.m., SAC 306) The Family Educational Rights and Policy Act protects the privacy of student education records. Do you know your rights? Presented by: Michael Mooney

Crazy Anti-Hazy: (Tuesday, March 11, 2008 @ 7 p.m., SAC 302) Participants will review University policies and Federal and State law regarding hazing and the dangers and consequences of hazing. Specific cases will be presented. Presented by: Andy Auguste
