All undergraduates are encouraged to participate in the Homecoming King & Queen Contest! Candidates compete annually for this honor, which recognizes two Stony Brook students for their participation in campus life and their promotion of school spirit.

The Homecoming King & Queen represent the University at major events and on special occasions, and are among Stony Brook’s most prominent student leaders. Winners will also be required to participate in two on campus community service events during the academic year.

Eligibility Requirements for Candidates:
- Be enrolled at the University for the 2012-2013 academic year.
- Have attended the University for at least one semester.
- Have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.5
- Not have a disciplinary record with the University.

Application Checklist:
- A completed application page (please see back).
- A 1-3 page narrative stating why you should be selected as the Homecoming King or Homecoming Queen. Essays should be typed, double-spaced, and should not exceed 3 pages.
- A typed list of your on-campus co-curricular activities, including leadership, volunteer, and community service experiences. Resumes are gladly accepted, if available.

Selection Process & Contest:
- A panel of judges will review all eligible application packets and choose finalists.
- Finalists will then participate in an evening of creative expressions as well as questions and answers at the King and Queen Contest on Thursday, September 20th at 7:00pm in the SAC Auditorium. Participants will be judged in the areas of communication skills, leadership experience, campus involvement, interpersonal skills, creative explosion, and overall presentation.
- The selected King & Queen will be announced during the Homecoming Football Game Half-Time Show on Saturday, September 22nd.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:
Wednesday, September 5, 2012 before 5:00 PM
to Shannon Jayne or Kimberly Stokely in the Student Activities Center, Suite 222

PLEASE NOTE: All students who are selected as finalists will be required to attend a preparation meeting on Wednesday, September 12th at 5:30pm.
Stony Brook University
Homecoming 2012
King & Queen Candidate Information Form

Please print clearly or type information on a separate page.

Candidate Information

Name: __________________________________________________________

Student ID #: ____________________________  Academic Major: ____________________________

Campus/Local Address: ____________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Permanent Home Address: ____________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

E-mail Address: ______________________________________________________

Cell Phone #: ____________________________  Class Standing: ____________________________

References (please provide two)

Name: __________________________________________________________

Title: ____________________________  Phone: ____________________________

Name: __________________________________________________________

Title: ____________________________  Phone: ____________________________

Application Checklist:
□ A completed candidate information form. (see above)
□ A 1-3 page narrative stating why you should be selected as the Homecoming King or Homecoming Queen. Essays should be typed, double-spaced, and should not exceed 3 pages.
□ A typed list of your on-campus co-curricular activities, including leadership, volunteer, and community service experiences. Resumes are gladly accepted, if available.

Return completed applications to SAC 222 by
Wednesday, September 5, 2012 before 5:00 PM