Stony Brook is implementing a paperless housing agreement.

By accepting your room key you acknowledge financial responsibility for your assigned space until the end of the academic year, until you properly check out of your room and return your room key to the Quad Office, or until the University confirms that you have vacated your space.

By accepting your room key you agree to abide by and comply with the University Student Conduct Code and Residence Hall Terms of Occupancy.

These documents can be found at http://studentaffairs.stonybrook.edu/res/terms.shtml.