

WOLFSTOCK 2009

Homecoming and Reunion

Stony Brook University Homecoming festivities will kick-off on September 30, 2009, these activities will lead up to the Homecoming Parade on October 3, 2009 beginning at 12:00 noon. Join the parade starting in the Gym Lot through Wolfie Lane then on to Wolfstock Village.

There will be a DJ, floats, cheerleaders, dance team performances, and the Spirit of Stony Brook Marching Band!

Many activities will take place around campus that will allow students to get involved. Residence halls will have float building and banner creation; these are just a few of many activities that will take place during the week of Homecoming.

Homecoming is a time to embrace the great traditions and legacy Stony Brook University has and will continue to develop for many years to come!

Homecoming is also a time for alumni and friends to enjoy Stony Brook campus community and catch up with old friends. Campus Residences has continued its commitment to making Homecoming an enjoyable experience for our residents and the entire Stony Brook Community. Please come out and support all Seawolves because what is a Seawolf? *I'm a Seawolf.

VS

Come out and support the STONY BROOK SEAVOLVES as they take on the Presbyterian Blue Hose from South Carolina!